

- (a) Find today's Bible story in Luke 10:25-37.

- (b) Ask someone to read the story to you.

- (c) Decide who will play each part in the story. Some people may have to play more than one part.

- (d) Act out the story or tell the story in your own words. Use the props in the box.

- (e) After you act out the story, talk with one another about how you felt and how you think each person in the story felt.

- (f) Pray together and ask God to help you be kind to other people.
